

XVI. BIOGRAPHY

Nelson R. Manohar-Alers (M'88) became a Member (M) of IEEE in 1988. Dr. Manohar-Alers was born in 1965 at San German, Puerto Rico, USA. Dr. Manohar-Alers earned a B.S. in computer engineering in 1987. He also earned a M.S. in computer engineering from the University of Wisconsin at Madison in 1988 and a M.S.E. in industrial engineering from the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor in 1992. Dr. Manohar-Alers earned his Ph.D. in computer science and engineering specializing in software systems from the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor in 1997. He currently works as an independent research consultant in San German, Puerto Rico. Previously, he worked at the IBM T. J. Watson Research Center as a Research Staff Member and AT&T Bell Laboratories (now Lucent Bell Labs) as a Member of the Technical Staff. His interests are in experimental software systems dealing with scalable systems, measurements, and resource management. He has been lead inventor in several patents on resource management. Previous research related to groupware, multimedia authoring, and advanced intelligent networks. From 1997 through 2001, Dr. Manohar was virtually kept hostage by state-funded terrorists and aiding and abetting elements from an international company and from 2001 through the present, Dr. Manohar has been a political prisoner of state-funded terrorists.